love you, honour Me by desiring Me and loving Me ♡ * That was last night, in our new flat the 'concierge' closes by lock the main entrance to the flats by 10.00 at night. We had forgotten our key in the flat. On seeing the door closed we knew we were locked out. I went to the door pleading. "Oh God don't tell me its locked let it be open! please!"
It was locked, but at that same minute one of the neighbours was just arriving too and opened.

Vassula, beloved, with this insight I am giving you, you will be of tremendous help to them, suffer when they suffer; and if you deny them, I will remind you all the time, you will share their sufferings ♡

O My God! will my system take all this?
not that my spirit fears but my flesh is weak...

I have suspected this and here is why : –
3 days ago in the TV news they showed 2 kids which died intrapped underground. I felt sorry for the kids and parents. I prayed for the parents. The following day they showed a tornado in Canada and terrified people talking about it, still under fear. The same night I prayed for them too. I felt sorry but not as if I'm in their skin. Suddenly, God threw His piercing ray on me, I felt it piercing my chest and going out through my back. It burnt me and gave me such agony that I wanted to run and drink water, it was as if I was ablaze! Then, later on I slept, He gave me a vivid image of how I should have felt : In my dream my own son died, I woke up from agony and God told me while I'm in this terrible agony I should immediately pray for the parents that lost their kids. I prayed fervently like they were my own. I slept, and immediately God again gave me an image of myself being caught in the tornado, I went through desperate fears of death. He woke me up again and told me to pray for those who experienced this. I prayed fervently as I was

42

On page 22 it was as if God was preparing me for this change; for already the following day I felt as if His Light was withdrawn slightly, I panicked. Immediately my soul started to search the reason, as I'm guilty & full of sin, I searched which were these sins that might have angered Him so much as to withdraw slightly His light, had I offended Him? or could it be Satan doing this to me? I thought that if its either, I, because of exactly this, should all the more cling tighter on my Saviour, pray more than usual, meditate more, use at full all other graces given to me, feel His Presence, talk to Him more than ever, never forget His Presence, work like I never worked so hard. If its Satan, he'll flee fuming, so I'll let him fume and he'll leave me alone, on the other hand, if it comes from God, a test, I would like to pass it like a good student. I want Him smiling.

Several days passed, no change, my strength was giving in, I was beginning to panick now, I tried to serve Him with more fervour & devotion, but I could not understand yet why all this was not helping, at least that's what I believed. Then my Saviour and Teacher explained to me what was happening.

When I thought He had abandoned me, He was but purifying me, lifting me into a higher level of meditation, developing my intellect and infusing it with a subtle ♡* light, nourishing me with insight.

* It's obvious, even when I explain my own feelings, God is dictating them to me. The word subtle was loudly said to me as I was hesitating of how to describe this light. I looked it up in the dictionary to find out what it meant, I didn't know...

Last night I was wakened up by the Lord and He asked me to surrender, all over again.

My words were: "Thank You Father for having looked upon me, who is but the personification of the sins of this world, thank You for Your Mercy when I denied You, thank You for the Love You have for me, inspite of my guilt You have lifted me into Your Heart. Allow me to be near You, near Your feet, already by allowing me this it is more than I deserve. Allowing me to talk to You is more than I merit, I merit nothing. Father, I surrender completely, I know I'm nothing but this nothing belongs to You.

You want to throw me in a corner, do it. You want to trample me, do it, You want me to suffer only, do it, You want me in Your Heart then it is more than I ever deserved. Whatever You wish Lord, I will but thank You and Love You.
Use me if You wish to my last strength to help others.
Make me worthy so that You are able to use me completely, I am Yours and Yours only, wretched, but I love You."

Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Then my angel handed me over to God and from there on Yahweh started to teach me. Dan ended by saying: "Glory be to God, I have done all that God wanted me to do."

I ran quickly and told my cousin, I was flying with happiness!! I was celebrating with God! She was happy too but warned me that others who don't understand might believe I'm in love with God. Loving Him wrongly. What she said saddened me a lot, and scared me. (Could she be right?)

Yesterday something very special happened! It was one of those busy days. It was washing day. So I had the machine working and the dryer, drying. My husband as it was a beautiful hot day took our son to the pool. He left at 11 and said they'll be back at 3.00; so I should have lunch ready at 3.00.
So I was left alone at home, working. It was ten to two when I thought I better start lunch. So I lit the plate of the stove to melt butter and suddenly all lights went off. The 'main' fuse blew out.
All machines stopped. I checked in all parts of the house if any electricity worked, none worked;
I looked to find a fuse to change, but my husband had changed place, the shops closed for it was Sunday, our car was out of order, and so I felt frustrated ... I went out of frustration and lied in bed. After 5 min. I heard some noise in the kitchen,

I went up to see what was this noise and to my great surprise I saw the lights of the oven lit and the plate warming the butter. But the machines were not working and the rest of the house was without electricity still. I couldn't understand, if the main is out and everything was out, then?
I prepared the food and placed it in the oven to roast. At 3.00 my husband returned and told him what had happened. So he re-checked all the electricity which was still out except for the stove, which was working. He checked the main fuse and he saw that the it had blown out. By then the food was ready; while checking the main fuse we saw that the meter was rolling, the minute I said: 'The food is ready' the meter stopped rolling although the oven was still lit. I went in and switched off the stove. My husband changed the fuse with a new one and again all electricity worked as normal. He too could not explain this.

I went up to see what was this noise and to my great surprise I saw the lights of the oven lit and the plate warming the butter. But the machines were not working and the rest of the house was without electricity still. I couldn't understand, if the main is out and everything was out, then?
I prepared the food and placed it in the oven to roast. At 3.00 my husband returned and told him what had happened. So he re-checked all the electricity which was still out except for the stove, which was working. He checked the main fuse and he saw that it had blown out. that I will not see you grieve during our feast ♡ Vassula, you are My flower, do you know what flower stands for?
flower symbolizes frailty, that is why I take good care of you lest your frailty
harms you ♡ Thank You My God, I know You are very near me & I love You. (I'm feeling embarrassed for I deserve nothing.)
Yesterday in the evening while in my son's room I was covered with incense. The odour was just at one particular spot. I felt happy!
My God? ♡ I am, I love you, do not doubt!
alone you are not, I Jesus, I Jesus am with you, flower I have always loved you to
